1a - Payslip

Sequence no: on the top right hand corner you will find the sequence number of the specification. This number increases each next specification.

Logo: on the left you see the Visma | Raet logo or your company logo.
Month and Year: the month and year of your salary calculation. Below the company adress and your name and address are printed.

1b - General

Here you will find information about you and your job at your employer, although not every item is mentioned. Besides your date of birth and the date you started at your employer, the following is presented on this example explanation.

- Company code: registration details of your employer at Raet.
- Employee code: your personal registration number.
- Combined income levy: indication Yes means that a tax-free allowance will be deducted from your income tax and national insurance contributions.
- Combined income levy: indication White means that your income tax is calculated according to the White tax rating table. This applies to your current wages.
- No. of income relations: this is a unique number to identify your income tax registration number in combination with your personal registration number.
- Annual pay spec. tax: on these wages you have paid income tax last year. These wages are used to determine a special rate tax.
- Minimum wage: this is your regulatory minimum wage.
- Part-time factor: your part-time factor. Your part-time factor is 1 when you work full-time. Your part-time factor is 0,8 when you work 80%.
- Hours period: the number of hours you normally work per week.
- Rate percentage. This special rate tax is used to calculate income tax on fees such as holiday allowance, bonuses and overtime.
- Rate applied: in this example payslip the special rate has been applied.
- Contract unlim. / ltd. tim: if you have a permanent contract, then it says Indefinitely; for a temporary contract, it says limited time.
- Written labor agreemen: indicates how your employment contract is recorded. If this is in writing, the indication is Yes, otherwise it is No.
- On call agreement: if the number of hours that you work per period (week or month) is not recorded in your employment contract, then there is a on call agreement and it says Yes. Otherwise it says No.
- Salary hourly rate: your wage per hour.

1c - Transfer details

It is possible to transfer your net salary to several bank accounts. In this example payslip the employee has the entire amount transferred to his salary account each period.

2 - Middle part - Calculation and Period total

2a Calculation
Salary component	GROSS	TAX	NET
Salary	2.700,00	-478,50	2.221,50

2a - Calculation

Here the actual salary calculations are presented and you will find all fees and deductions.

The Salary component column lists the components that play a role in the Gross Net calculation.

The GROSS column shows the gross wage components starting with the Salary and ending with net (tax-free) wage components; in this example Commuting allowance and Staff association contribution.

In the column TAX you see the amounts calculated for income tax and national insurance contributions for the Dutch legislations AOW, ANW and WLZ.

On the right in the column NET you will find the amounts which are added to or deducted from your salary.

The indication * (star) means that this amount is calculated with retroactive effect, because of a legislation change or a change in your personal records.

- Salary: your gross monthly salary.
- Pens. contribution: deduction for your old age pension, bereaved pension.
- Bonus: one-off payment for a special achievement.
- Overtime 150%: one-off payment of your overtime hours calculated as a percentage of your Salary hourly rate.
- Commuting allowance: net allowance.
- Staff association contribution: net deduction for your employees' association.

2b - Period total

Period total	2b	2.924,47	-537,01	2.387,46
--------------	----	----------	---------	----------

In the GROSS column you will find your total gross payments.

The TAX column presents the amount you paid for income tax and national insurance contributions for the Dutch legislations AOW, ANW and WLZ.

The amount at the bottom of the NET column is your finally net salary transferred to your account.

3 - Bottom part - Numbers, Amounts and Registration details

3a - Numbers

3a Numbers
